The School will inform Participants of planned amendments at least 14 days before implementation and present the new text of the Regulations. Each Participant will be asked to accept the new Regulations before implementation. If the Participant does not agree to the amendment, they have the right to terminate the online language course agreement in accordance with the notice periods in point 5.1.

5.15. For the avoidance of doubt, publication of regulations for the next semester, school year, or a new service is not considered an amendment to these Regulations and does not affect rights and obligations acquired under them. The provisions of these Regulations continue to apply to agreements concluded on their basis until termination. The same applies to the price list for the next semester, school year, or a new service.

5.16. These Regulations do not exclude or limit any consumer rights granted under mandatory provisions of law. In the event of a conflict between these Regulations and mandatory provisions granting specific rights to consumers, such provisions shall prevail.
